

Terms & Conditions:

All activities organised by Sur La Pointé will be well supervised and all precautions for safety will be taken.

However, the instructor will not be responsible for any injury or loss that may occur during participation in exercise classes or any other activity in this studio and such participation is at your own risk.

Written notice to terminate classes must be given one term in advance. Parents are liable for payment until such notice is received.

Payment is due by the 1st lesson of each term. If payment has not been made by the 1st lesson, your daughter will not be allowed to participate until such payment is made.

Kindly note that not all terms have the same number of lessons. Term fees is a set amount regardless the number of lessons per term. Recital rehearsals are included in your term fees. Recital costume fees is not included in the term fee. The costume fee will be included in your 2nd term's fee.

Class fees are payable regardless of attendance. This means that whether you attend class or not, the fees remain consistent. I understand that there may be occasions when you are unable to attend class, however, Sur La Pointé policy remains in effect to support the overall sustainability of our program.

No student will be allowed to wear their ballet uniform if it is not clearly marked. All students must have a clearly marked ballet bag. The instructor will not be liable for any lost clothing or shoes.
